Implementation of the Supreme Court's Judgement Regarding Pensionay Benefits

3065. SHRI M. VINCENT: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have considered the recent Supreme Court Judgement, regarding the grant of enhanced pensionary benefits to pre-1st January, 1973 retired Central Government servants;

(b) if so, the salient features of this judgement and Government's reaction thereto; and

(c) the steps being taken to implement the Supreme Court's judgement?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) The recent judgement of the Supreme Court dated 14.1.1988 does not relate to retired Central Government servants. It relates to the claims made by the All India Services Pensioners' Association, Rajasthan for revision of pension and gratuity for the All India Services officers who retired before 1.1.1973 and were represented by the said Association.

(b) The Supreme Court set aside the orders of the Central Administrative Tribunal, New Delhi regarding the revision of gratuity and left open the question regarding the revision of pension.

(c) The matter is under consideration.

Basis of Allocation of Funds for Anti-poverty Programme

3066. SHRI SUNIL BASU RAY: Will the Minister of PLANNING be pleased to state what is the basis of allocations of funds for I.R.D.P., N.R.E.P., and R.L.E.G.P. to the States, and the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI BIREN SINGH ENGTI): The basis of allocation of funds to the States under the Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), National Rural Employment Programme (NREP), and Rural Landless Employment Programme (RLEGP) is as follows:

Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP): For the first two years of the Seventh Plan 50 per cent funds were allocated on the incidence of poverty as determined by the 38th round of NSSO survey and 50 per cent uniformly on the basis of number of blocks that existed at the end of the Sixth Plan. For 1987-88, 2|3rds of the funds were allocated on the incidence of poverty and 1|3rd on uniform allocation per block. For 1988-89, 75 per cent funds will be allocated on the incidence of poverty and 25 per cent on uniform allocation per block. Since in the 38th round of NSSO survey, figures of persons below poverty line for rural areas are not separately available for the States of Arunachal Pradesh, Goa, Mizoram, Nagaland, Sikkim, and the UTs, allo-
